Privacy Policy

This privacy policy sets out how mps|communications uses any information when you use this website. Last updated on August 30, 2017. mps|communications is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. Should we ask you to provide certain information by which you can be identified when using this website (such as sending an email to mps|communications requesting a demo or information), then you can be assured that it will only be used in accordance with this privacy statement.

What we collect

We may collect the following information:

- When you visit our website, our servers automatically record information that your browser sends. These server logs may include information such as your web request, Internet Protocol address, browser type, browser language, the date and time of your request, and one or more cookies that may uniquely identify your browser.
- When you send email or other communication to mps|communications, we may retain those communications in order to process your inquiries, respond to your requests and improve our services.

What we do with the information we gather

We require this information to understand your needs and provide you with a better service, and in particular for the following reasons:

- Internal record keeping.
- We may use the information to improve our products and services through the use of service providers who collect the information for us.
- We may periodically send promotional emails about new products, special offers or other information which we think you may find interesting using the email address which you have provided.
- From time to time, we may also use your information to contact you for market research purposes. We may contact you by email, phone, fax or mail. We may use the information to customize the website according to your interests.

How we use cookies

A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Once you agree, the file is added and the cookie helps analyze web traffic or lets you know when you visit a particular site. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual. The web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyze data about web page traffic and improve our website in order to tailor it to customer needs. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes and then the data is removed from the system after one year.

Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website, by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us. You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.

Third party use of personal information

We will not sell, distribute or lease your personal information to third parties unless we have your permission or are required by law to do so.
